

Kampagne #IdentifyMe Unknown woman burned to death after sexual offense in Altena-Bergfeld

CRIME: MURDER

FACTS OF THE CASE:

Hagen public prosecutor's office and Hagen police headquarters request your assistance!

On 02/06/1997, the naked body of a woman was found in a piece of woodland in Altena-Bergfeld near Hagen in the Ruhr region. The victim had been raped, throttled and then doused with petrol and set on fire. Up until today, the young woman's identity remains unknown

Investigations found that the victim was still alive when she was set on fire. It is highly likely that the victim's father committed the crime or was at least involved in it.

REWARD:

For any information leading to the identification of the victim a reward of EUR 2,000 has been offered.

Only private individuals are entitled to the reward. Officers whose professional duties involve the investigation and prosecution of criminal acts are not entitled to it.

The reward will be granted and distributed without recourse to legal action according to the significance and relevance of the respective information received

PERSONAL DETAILS:

- Sex: female
- Age: 18 - 22 years
- Height: 155 cm

APPEARANCE:

Reconstructions with the help of the mortal remains have revealed that the unidentified woman had dark hair dyed red brown, fair skin and dark eyes. At the time of death, she weighed about 45 kgs Her shoe size is estimated at 33 to 35

Also remarkable are the very well-groomed teeth of the dead woman, in particular one of the upper incisors, where a crystal stone appeared to be affixed as tooth jewellery during the victim's life time
